

A MOTHER'S STRENGTH

Mother, whose hands rock the cradle, often needs more than ordinary food to help maintain the blood-quality and strength and to assure adequate nourishment to the child. It is as unwise for the mother, as it is dangerous to the child, to place dependence upon alcoholic stimulation, for strength is not found in alcohol.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Cod liver oil, absolutely free from alcohol, is mother's true friend, in that it performs a two-fold duty. Scott's is tonic-nourishment, particularly fitted for the trying period of motherhood.

SCOTT'S EMULSION BUILDS UP STRENGTH.

HENNINGER WAS IN THICK OF BATTLE

The following interesting letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henninger of Lake Katrine from their son, Wm. Henninger, who is a member of Company B, 107th Infantry, A. I. I. He tells of being gassed slightly wounded and that he and a companion shot down a Hun's airplane. He has another brother in France, Charles Henninger, a member of Co. I, 53th Pioneers.

On Active Service Overseas. Soldiers' Christian Ass'n Home, October 5, 1918.

Dear Mother and Father: I received a letter some time ago but did not have time to answer it at present, for I was going up to the front. Well, was up there three days and then we went over the top. No doubt you have already seen it in the papers. We made a good drive and got what we went for. Of course, there were a lot wounded but not any of us were killed. I was gassed but all right now, and was in the hospital a couple of days but am going back to the company soon. We captured a lot of prisoners. I also received a letter from Elizabeth about two weeks ago. I was also wounded in the hip but it is slight. It is a great thing to go over the top and come out of it without being wounded or gassed, for the big shells are bursting all around you and the machine gun bullets are singing around your head. I had two of them cut through my steel helmet and came out on the other side but did not hurt me a damn bit. Well, I killed a good lot of Huns and fought hard for six hours. I and another fellow brought down a Hun's airplane with a machine gun. Well, I guess this is all the news for the present time. Hoping this letter will reach you and find you all in the best of health, as I am well and happy. Will write again soon. I remain your loving son, WILLIAM.

PHOENICIA

Phoenicia, Nov. 8.—Mrs. C. B. Lee is visiting relatives in Poughkeepsie. Harold Simmons, son of Virgil Simmons, died at the Kingston City Hospital Wednesday night. Mr. Simmons was only 19 years of age and was highly esteemed by all of his acquaintances.

Miss Beebe, a sister of Mrs. G. A. Kinsey, died of pneumonia on Sunday. A service was held at the home of Mr. Kinsey on Tuesday evening. Interment was made in Long Island Wednesday.

Regular services in all of the churches will be resumed on Sunday, November 10.

The public school will reopen on Tuesday, November 12. A teachers' conference for the teachers of the town of Shandaken will be held in our school on Monday.

Mrs. Rowe and family expect to return to New York this week. Her son expects to spend the winter in North Carolina.

Louis Barber is still sick at his home here. We hope for his speedy recovery.

We are glad to see Fred L. Goo about the place again.

Richard Ford of New York was a pleasant caller among us on Tuesday. Mr. Ford is a friend to the Phoenicia graded school. Recently he presented it with a large silk flag for the principal's room. When he came this time he brought several new records on the gramophone.

Madison Longyear returned with James H. Shurtz's family to Kingston on Wednesday afternoon. While there he called upon R. Schmidt of this town. He is quite sick at the Benedictine Sanatorium.

The funeral of Henry R. Roberts was held from his late home on Church street on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Jenkins of the Methodist Church officiated, and Mrs. A. J. Longyear, Mrs. David R. Hill, Mrs. Alfred Kahler and C. E. C. Longyear rendered three quartet selections. Favorite hymns of the deceased, Mr. Roberts was born in Woodland on May 3, 1857, and spent most of his life in this county. When but a boy he lost both legs as the result of too frequent bathing in the creek at Woodland, and since that time he had been a patient occupant of a wheel chair. Although so terribly afflicted, he had a sunny disposition and took a keen interest in the affairs of his community. He was industrious in every way that he could be, taking especial interest in writing for newspapers and in composing short stories, some of which were used by New York papers. In his home he would sell things and he materially aided by his own support. For amusement he played the violin, which instrument he took great delight in. The last time he took up his musical companion was soon after the death of "Teddy" Longyear, who he had thought of "Teddy" he laid it down, not thinking that he would soon pass away also. He led a cheerful Christian life and lived up to the best of his knowledge, belief and privileges. He will be missed so much by his father and sister, Lulu, the survivors in the home, who were ever at his side to help him. From the time his legs were amputated he gained in weight so that at the time of his death he weighed at least 175 pounds. This made his care during his last sickness a decided task. Our village has under a cloud, as sickness and death have ravaged our people for the past few weeks.

Her Happiest Days. The other day a lady confided to us that the happiest days of her life were spent during the three years that she was eighteen.—Boston Transcript.

SNOW IN FRANCE

On October 9th Writes Private Joe Cohen.

Mrs. Fanny Levy, of Newkirk avenue, has received a letter from her brother, Private Joe Cohen, a machine gunner in France, saying that army life agrees with him entirely and that the Americans are going fine.

The letter follows:

Somewhere in France. Oct. 9, 1918.

My Dear Sister Fanny: Your letter of September 12th received last evening and was overjoyed to note that you are all in the best of health. I jumped about six feet in the air when, on opening the letter, I found your photo. It is the only photo that I have of the family. All the photos that I had I lost before leaving the states. I asked mother to send me a photo of her a few times but have not received any yet, but hope to soon.

In your letter you state that you suppose I don't forget you. Well, you can bet that I don't and can't forget you all. I am also very glad that mother and father are well and getting along. Sometimes I get a funny feeling that they are worrying about me and it makes me feel very bad. I am also glad that Harry is feeling well after his operation, as I suppose you are, you will find that I am not the only one who is trying to hit the bull's eye. Most of the American boys can and do.

You ask me if I could cash my checks. Well, I can let you know that I did, and sent that money and some that I drew, home a few weeks ago. Mother should have it by this time. She will get check from a New York bank for $74.30. I sent $12.00 in French money, through the Y. M. C. A. That is the only way we can send money to the states.

You ask me if I am shooting the bull's eye out yet. Well, I can say that I am trying to very hard, and if you are reading the newspaper, as I suppose you are, you will find that I am not the only one who is trying to hit the bull's eye. Most of the American boys can and do.

You also ask me in your letter if I am getting along well, whether I am feeling well. All I can say is I never felt better in all my young life. I am getting along so well that at present and for the past five weeks have not put on my glasses. You know the trouble I once had with my eyes. Why, for six years I could not take off my glasses longer than ten or fifteen minutes at a time. I wish you would tell mother that I am not using glasses any more, for I forgot to mention it in my mail to her.

Well, this is the first day that I seen snow in France. It has been a nasty day. I suppose the winter will be coming in soon, and we will be moving to winter quarters.

Well, what do you think of the war. For we have heard a rumor that the 11th army corps had let down their arms. Well, if they did, this war won't last but a little while longer. And I and all the boys are hoping that it won't, so that we will be able to go back to the good old United States, the place to be on the face of the earth.

No more to write at present. I send my love and regards to you, Bessie and the children, also to the old folks.

P. S.—I thank you again for the photograph.

BROTHER JOE PRIVATE JOE A. COHEN.

Machine Gun Co., 51st Regt. Inf. A. P. O. No. 777.

LACKAWACK

Lackawack, Nov. 7.—We are having much cooler weather at this writing which we are in hopes will be in favor of stopping the influenza as there has been a number of deaths here.

Mrs. Byford and family are all improved after their sickness.

Lewis Simpson and wife are home on a hunting trip. Lew says he expects to get some game to take home.

Theresa, wife of George Byford, died at her home in Boston, September 24th, after eighteen days of sickness. She was a kind and loving wife and mother and was a friend to all who knew her. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband and three children, Agnes, Winifred and George and three sisters and two brothers. Two weeks before her death they lost a little boy, nine months old. The sympathy is extended to all.

Dora Herman has bought the cottage across the creek from Jim Shiels.

Moving is the order of the day. Joe Irwin is moving to Sholan.

Ralph Eck moved in one of C. N. Morse's houses. Reuben Eck in the house.

There was a party stopping at Eureka Friday night and they report seeing ice. It is getting time for cold weather.

Harry Conklin returned home Sunday from New York bringing his little son with him.

Mrs. Byford received word October 27 of the death of her son, Henry's wife and Friday the death Jake Mowell. Mr. Mowell being a nephew of hers in Torrington, Conn.

There are a number of the boys and men working at Montela from here.

Mass at Lackawack Sunday next at 2 a. m.

Lewis Simpson and wife have returned home from Boston after attending the funeral of Mrs. Simpson's brother's wife, bringing two of the children with them. Mrs. Bryers keeping one and Mrs. Simpson the other little girl.

Jim Shiels has a fine new team of horses which he just bought.

There are a few cases of influenza around on the hills at this writing.

Mike Coniger was here from New Falls for election.

Augusta Stangle is ill.

Word was received here of the death of Grant Coniger, son of Eliza.

DRAFTES TO GO FORWARD AS USUAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8.—New York state draft boards will continue to send their men to camps despite the signing of an armistice. This became known today when Governor Whitman directed F. S. Hutchinson, in charge of the state selective service headquarters, to send the following telegram to all the district and local draft boards:

Signing of armistice does not mean suspension of work. The classification and physical examination must be completed and quotas filled as heretofore ordered."

ELLENVILLE HELD GREAT CELEBRATION

Ellenville, Nov. 8.—When the news reached Ellenville of the German surrender, the people of the town went wild with patriotism. Every bell in the town following the fire alarm was rung every whistle blown and the people were alive with excitement. Every man and boy in sight stepped in line of march and the first parade was held. At seven the town was alive—men, women, and children and a second parade started which included either a foot or in autos the entire village people almost to a man, woman, boy and girl and children. The houses were hastily illuminated and decorated, flags floated everywhere. The line of march formed on Liberty square and moved up Canal to West End down Center to the lower part of town back to the Mitchell Square. Red lights and fire works rent the air and the music and hurrahs were loud and long. In years to come the remembrance of this joyous occasion in Ellenville will be remembered and told to future generations. Ellenville people have been alive with patriotism from the very earliest stages of the war on. Right with President Wilson from the first declaration of war and are right with him today. At this hour of final surrender of a country who declared war for world gain and has met world defeat. All praise to our president, praise to General Foch, and all the generals including our General Pershing and our Allies and our noble Americans who have fought so well and gained world honor and we at home are with them—and our flag floats on.

A Long Smoke.
If the 180,000,000 cigarettes ordered for distribution at Y. M. C. A. canteens in France in August alone were placed end to end they would reach something like 6,392 miles, or from America to France and back with a few miles to spare. Through a recent arrangement with the government all prices charged at Y. M. C. A. canteens or post exchanges for tobacco are the same as at army commissary stores. There were 530 of these post exchanges in active operation at the commencement of autumn. One million two-ounce cans of smoking tobacco were ordered for the same month.

There is not any virtue the exercise of which even momentarily will not impress a new fairness upon the features.—Ruskin.

GOOD THINGS WORTH TRYING.

The cottage cheese which we may make at home of skim milk, or in many places buy in any quantity for the table, lends itself to many nutritious dishes. Circular number 109 of the United States Department of Agriculture furnishes free for the asking this bulletin on cottage cheese dishes. It is one quite worth while for every farm woman, and the town women will be glad to avail themselves of these good recipes.

Cottage Cheese Omelet.—Beat the yolks of two eggs until thick, the whites until stiff. Add to the yolks a fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of milk, and a half-cupful of cottage cheese which has been seasoned with a tablespoonful of chopped pimientos; then fold in the whites and pour into a well-greased omelet pan. Cook slowly until the egg is set, place in the oven for a few minutes to finish cooking and fold over in the center; garnish with parsley. Mince ham or green peppers are also good seasoning which will give variety to this dish.

Cottage Cheese Roast.—Take two cupfuls of cooked cereal, one cupful of cottage cheese, one cupful of dry bread crumbs, one and an eighth teaspoonful of salt, a fourth of a teaspoonful each of soda and pepper; mix thoroughly and form into a roll. If too dry add a little milk or cream. Form into a roll and bake twenty-five minutes, basting often with beef drippings or other sweet fat.

Cottage Cheese Soup.—Take a pint of milk, a tablespoonful of butter, the same of flour, cooked together; half a teaspoonful of salt, and a dash of pepper with a half cupful of cheese. Prepare the sauce as usual and remove from the heat to cool slightly before adding the cheese. To flavor with onion the juice may be added or the milk scalded with a slice of onion. Parsley, pimiento or Worcestershire sauce will all give variety of flavor. For those who do not enjoy the acid flavor of the cheese it may be neutralized by adding a little soda; a fourth to a third of a teaspoonful will usually be sufficient.

Pershing Praises American Farmers.

General Pershing in a letter to Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, expresses appreciation of the work of the farmers of America, who, he says, have not only supplied their quota of fighting men and bought largely of Liberty Bonds, but have increased crops both last year and this over one thousand million bushels above normal production. General Pershing wrote as follows:

Food is of vital necessity, and from the day of our entry into the war America's army of food producers have rendered invaluable service to the allied cause by supporting the soldiers at the front through their devoted and splendidly successful work in the fields and furrows at home.

Farmers of New York State, who responded so nobly to the appeal of Herbert Hoover, U. S. Food Administrator, to raise more food, may justly take to themselves a full share of General Pershing's commendation.

HOTEL DIVISION MERGES WITH FEDERAL FOOD BOARD

The Hotel and Restaurant Committee of the Hotel, Restaurant, Dining Car and Steamship Division of the U. S. Food Administration, formerly at 334 Fifth Avenue, has merged with the Federal Food Board, 6 West 57th Street, New York. In future all orders, rules and regulations of this division will be issued to public eating places in this State by this Committee after being approved by the Federal Food Board. All complaints or reports of violations in public eating places will be referred to the Board.

The Committee is prepared to answer inquiries concerning the new conservation program for public eating places which went into effect October 21. A list of questions and answers dealing with the new regulations has been prepared for distribution. The Committee looks for the fullest cooperation on the part of proprietors of public eating places in the carrying out of the new program.

OUR LETTER BOX

Replies to food questions, particularly about sugar, from readers of the Bulletin answered by experts of the U. S. Food Administration. Address inquiries to Editor, Federal Food Board, 6 West 57th Street, New York City.

HOUSEWIFE (Goshen).—As the 1918 canning season is practically over in most states, no more sugar certificates for home canning will be issued.

M. K. (Haysboro).—In purchasing Victory Flour it is not necessary to buy any wheat substitutes. Victory Flour contains 20 per cent. of wheat substitutes scientifically mixed by the miller.

E. V. F. (Hudson).—Avoid using sugar in cooking as much as possible. Corn and maple syrup or honey can be used instead of sugar.

CONSCIENTIOUS (Palmer).—Any sugar you have left from canning should be returned to the dealer from whom you purchased it, who will allow you for it.

BONIFACE (Albany).—The new war program for public eating places became effective Oct. 21 last. The Committee with the Hotel and Restaurant Committee of the Hotel, Restaurant, Dining Car and Steamship Division of the U. S. Food Administration, 6 West 57th Street, New York, N. Y.

WANTS CRACK AT HUN

Before Says Cohen. Soldiers Have Warm Clothing.

E. Cohen of Newkirk avenue has received a letter from his son, Private Joseph Cohen, overseas, in which he explains how well clothed the boys are for the cold and exposure of the trenches, and predicting an early peace.

The letter follows:

Somewhere in France, Oct. 8, 1918.

Dear Mother and Father: Your letter of the 5th of September received and was very glad to note by its contents that you are all in the best of health. The same can be said of myself.

I am very sorry that you can't send me the sweater, for there are many times that it would come in handy. The weather here is commencing to become cold, especially at night. I don't think I will go to all the trouble that you state in your letter to get the sweater. We have what we call trench jackets. These jackets are made of leather with a good, heavy cloth lining. They are very warm, for they come way below the hips. And that isn't all we have by any means. We have at present two suits of heavy woolen underwear, three pairs of heavy woolen socks, a woolen cap, which we can pull down over our ears if we want to. For, as you know, we always wear our steel helmets. And our leggings are also made of woolen cloth. We also have two heavy shirts, a pair of woolen gloves and a pair of leather mittens like the kind a chauffeur uses in the winter time. So you can understand that we are pretty well equipped for the winter, and I suppose that a little later on we will be getting some more winter stuff.

Please send me your photographs. I suppose you have read in the paper about Bulgaria dropping out of the war, and that Turkey and Austria-Hungary are thinking about doing the same. If they do drop out and leave Germany alone, I don't think that the war will last much longer. I hope not. And so does the other boys here. But just the same they would all like to take a tumble out of the Hun, and if we do before this war is over you can bet your last dollar that we are going to be on top when we get finished.

I received a letter from Nathan Feldman and he states in it that he would be up to see you. Let me know what he thinks of army life in general. He states that it agrees with him very much. I wish you would be able to see me now. My face is about as red as my hair, and I feel like a young man after a good meal. Why, I believe I could walk to the end of the world if I was to walk without my pack. The pack only weighs about 40 pounds and then we have an extra pair of shoes, a rain coat and a heavy overcoat. Altogether the outfit weighs about 50 pounds. To walk about 10 miles in the morning is a mere trifle. You can imagine the change in the old boy. There are times when it is quite difficult to sit down and write a letter, for after a day's drill I am quite tired, and at night we are not allowed to have any light, so unless I sit right down as soon as I come from drill, why the letter is not written. So you will please excuse me for not writing more often.

No more to write at present. I send my love and regards to you all. Regards to Fanny and family.

There's a right way to pile wood. Pile it so the air can circulate freely through it.

Interested in cheese making? Why not send to the State College of Agriculture at Ithaca for the bulletin on "A Cheese Making Test?" Ask for E. B. 17.

War conditions require fore-sight and some extra thinking, but the farmer doesn't have his optimism. "Remember," says one who has had his share of ups and downs, "that when a tea kettle is up to its neck in hot water, it keeps smoking away."

The farmer who is doing his full share of the world's work is giving great aid toward victory. To do a full share he should make use of every form of help at his command. And these help is the county Farm Bureau and his State College of Agriculture.

Who says gardening doesn't pay? A large manufacturing concern in Ohio had its employees keep an accurate record of time spent in their gardens and the value of the crops grown. At the end of the season it was found the gardeners had received 22 cents an hour for their labor.

SHADY.

Shady, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Stanley Younck, who has been spending some time with her daughter-in-law in New York, has returned home, bringing her grandson with her.

Mrs. Grace Reynolds spent Wednesday last with her grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rathbone and daughter, Mrs. E. M. White, and Mrs. C. L. Van Alen were callers at the home of William James of Woodstock Sunday afternoon.

Edith Laura of Thompsonston was a guest of C. S. Reynolds and family on Saturday.

Mrs. Harriet, Mrs. Daniel, spent Tuesday evening at Mrs. Mary Hargrave's.

NON-WAR BUILDING RULE.

Projects Which Should be Deferred
Until Peace Arrives.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Modification of non-war construction rulings by the war industries board, designed to strengthen the position of local committees in passing upon applications for construction work, have been announced by the state defense council.
It is no longer necessary to send to Washington applications for construction work up to $500. Approval or rejection of applications for work of this sort will be made by the county committees, and action by the state defense council is final.
Another new ruling makes extension of buildings, new construction, they no longer being classed as repairs or alterations.
Chairman Baruch, of the war industries board, lists the following as projects which should be deferred
until final peace has been declared:
Garages.
Park improvements.
Side walks.
Moving picture houses.
Theaters and other amusement places.
Public buildings.
Gasoline stations.
Bank buildings.
Hotels.
Sewage systems.
Office buildings.
Churches.
Schools.
Non-war factories or mills.
Apartment buildings.
Grain elevators.
Gas and electric light plants.
Water works improvements.
Commercial enterprises and store buildings.

MILTON.

Milton, Nov. 8.—Miss May Lee Brice of New York city, who was a guest at "Twin Birches" for several days, returned to her home on Sunday.

Miss Robinson of New York City
is with Mrs. M. A. Northrup and Mrs.
de Leon.

We would state that an omission was made in last week's issue, that at the funeral and burial service at Cedar Hill, of Malcolm Allan Northrup the Reverends Hart S. Fuller and George Allan officiated. Mr. Fuller was Malcolm's pastor, and Mr. Allan was the family's pastor during Malcolm's childhood, and after whom he was named. The flowers were many and beautiful, showing the loving esteem of relatives and friends. The graduation class of 1916 of Marlboro High School, of which Malcolm was an honored member, sent a piece of immense white chrysanthemums.
At this writing, Charles L. Northrup, son of Justice and Mrs. Northrup, is in a very critical condition, with pneumonia, at St. Luke's Hospital.
Miss Sarah Lyons of New York city is convalescing at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs.
P. A. Lyons.

At the election on Tuesday 257 votes were cast. Many women voted, and a small Republican majority was shown in the two districts.

Mrs. J. B. Ball, president of the local Red Cross, is quite ill.
There will be services on Sunday
November 10 in the M. E. Church, Sunday School at 10 a. m. Worship at 11 o'clock. Subject of sermon,
"The Trial of Our Faith." "Frontiers, Old and New." Leader, Mrs.
Grover Ferguson. Evening worship
at 8 o'clock. Subject of sermon,
"The Crowded Heavens of the Spiritual Realm."

Since an account of the epidemic of influenza we have been deprived of the privileges of the sanctuary for some time. Let us make a special effort to attend next Sunday.

Martin Lyons is at orderly at Ossining Convalescing Hospital.
Justice and Mrs. Northrup received three letters from their son, C. W.
Northrup, a few days ago. He was promoted to the rank of wagoner.
He was promoted to be remembered to all acquiring friends.

The library of the S. H. H. Free-Library announces that the library will be open on Saturday afternoon at the usual hour, and any one who is unable to get books.
Miss Mary P. Richardson of Sherburne, Conn., is with her aunt, Mrs.
Jennie Rowley this week. Miss Rowley moved to the home of Mr.
and Mrs. J. R. Riddle on Thursday as Mrs. and Miss Crook with whom she has boarded, are going away for the winter.

ALLEGRETTA.

Allegretta, Nov. 7.—This community was saddened Tuesday by the death of Stanley C. L. at his home in Utopia, N. Y., of pneumonia. He was the son of Mr.
and Mrs. H. P. Ladd, merchant of this place, and employed by Stanley and Off Company. About two years ago he was married to Miss Pauline

REAL MEAT ECONOMY AT LAY'S BIG "VICTORY" SALE

"Because we buy the very best, each steak and chop will stand the test, each pound of meat that you buy here first stands inspection most severe," says our laughing butcher boy, and he ought to know. Complaints are seldom, if ever, heard at this market, because we bend every energy towards giving patrons what they demand, serve them promptly and charge prices that please everybody. Most of our customers are willing to pay a price when they get their money's worth, and we always see to it that satisfaction goes out with every package.

THE LAST WEEK!

THE Great Shoe Sale that we have been conducting so successfully is now playing the last act, and the curtain will be rung down on Saturday night! It has certainly been one of the most interesting Shoe Sales Kingston has ever known. Good Shoes at Cut Prices mean something these days! More than ever before!

People who have taken advantage of our offerings are happy and are congratulating themselves!
People who have not have missed something!

As a great final inducement to belated buyers we offer until we close our store on Saturday night unusual bargains in high grade Footwear.

DON'T GET SHUT OUT! ACT WHILE THERE'S YET TIME!

Earliest Form of Shoes

The earliest shoes known were sandals of hide, leather or wood. When one encounters the word "shoe" in the Bible he may be sure that it is the sandal that is commonly meant. In Egypt the sandal was worn of palm leaves and papyrus. As a symbol of the subjection of their enemies the Egyptians often painted the soles of their opponents on the lining of their sandals.

UNDERNEATH THE CITY HALL DOME

Election Officials Seek More Pay—
A New Use for American Flag—
91 New Cases of "Flu"—What Happened in the Sixth.

The bills of the election officials who served Tuesday at the election are being filed with City Clerk Doremus at the city hall. Under the law election officials are paid at the rate of $7 a day for work on registration days and $10 for election day, while the chairman of the board receives an extra $7 for his work in filling the election returns the day after election. Many of the election officials are seeking more pay and have filed bills calling for $10 a day for registration days and $15 for election day. As the pay is fixed by the city charter it is likely the common council will cut all bills filed for higher amounts than those allowed by law.

In the second district of the Sixth ward the voters marked their ballots and cast their votes Tuesday without signing their names to the signature book. This was due to the fact that the signature book was not delivered with the other election supplies.
It is more than the Whitman-Smith election is being held up to decide whether the two hundred votes in that district should be counted or cast out as unfounded.

Those visiting the city hall this morning found that a new use for the American flag had been discovered by the Kingston City Library across the street from the hall. The flag was used to cover the flower bed on the front lawn to protect the plants from frost. More than that it was thrown across the bed upside down—the distress signal and the library is one of our most American institutions. The German flag would have been more appropriate.

During the past three days—Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday—91
new cases of influenza and pneumonia have been reported in Kingston. This indicates that the influenza epidemic is still very active.

Police circles still remain quiet and no arrests were made by the police during the night.

Our Growing Population.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lechner of
No. 23 Cedar street are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son,
Metcin, born at the Kingston City Hospital on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brodsky of Maple Hill are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, Edward, at the Kingston City Hospital Tuesday.

Two Ambulance Calls Thursday.

Mrs. K. Rudinski of 31 Lafayette avenue was removed to the Kingston City Hospital Thursday afternoon.

Henry Carlick was removed from his home on the Sawkill road that evening to the Kingston City Hospital.

HURLEY ROAD IS NEARLY COMPLETED

The Hurley state road is rapidly nearing completion, and weather conditions permitting, will be finished by Monday afternoon. The road bed is of concrete and is sixteen feet wide. It is being built from the Marbletown bridge to the city line. After completion it will remain closed to traffic for about ten days in order to allow the concrete to harden. The road is being built by the Fallkill Construction Company, and will make a fine highway when completed. At the present time those traveling between Kingston and Hurley have to detour.

ULSTER MEN IN CAMP

Who Have Not Mastered English Can Get Help From Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. Hostess House, Camp Gordon, Georgia, Nov. 5, 1918.

Editor Kingston Freeman:

Dear Sir:—As soon as the quarantine in this camp was lifted, I came here to take charge of a new work in which it occurs to me your readers and my fellow townsmen may be interested. It is a work for the foreign born soldiers, and after observing the experiments tried out last summer, the government has asked the Y. W. C. A. to carry it out in the cantonments where the foreign born men are mainly grouped. This association was peculiarly equipped to carry it on as they have been doing a widespread work among foreign-born women for many years past, and have a very large number of interpreters in their employ.

We shall be able, in this camp to speak with Italians, Poles, Russians, Rutenians, Servians and the various Slav nationalities in their native tongue. The military and the police department have shown themselves in sympathy, and have already availed themselves of what we have to offer. The problems arising among these poor fellows who have often been deserted, and even committed suicide through the utter discouragement in making their wants known or their difficulties understood, are of almost infinite variety. Indeed I have, within my first week been sent for to interview a man whom his lieutenant thought to be an Italian, but he was a Ukrainian, in the guard house for desertion; have been consulted on a knotty case by a Lutheran Chaplain; have (I trust) been able to get two men back into close relations with their Russian Jew's wife and help her to find her way to her husband, beside unnumbered interviews here in the afternoons and evenings when the house is thronged with soldiers who beseege the singing and gay noises are hungrily ready for a friendly word.

If the case is one for Red Cross Home Service, the R. C. is called up and I get an appointment with a representative at once. One half-distracted man last week, who could hardly speak six consecutive words of English made me understand that his wife, who could speak none at all, had seemed to disappear in New York. He could get no words—could read or write no English—and he had heard that she was sick and had had none of his pay in three months. Within twenty-four hours, by means of night letters freely used, we were able to tell him that she was located, and money advanced to her. He had a dog, who found that she had nothing more than a bad cold, and that the R. C. would see that she got the allotment in future. The R. C., the Y. M. C. A. and the Jewish Welfare work in cooperation, and we shall be able to make our efforts from day to day more and more useful to each of them.

May I ask through your columns that any Ulster County men who are in this camp will come and ask me at the Hostess House. I am never too busy to see and talk with the home boys, nor to be of any possible service to them. One of them did come in the other night—young Sweeney—and though he had to talk to me through his influenza mask it gave me very great pleasure to see him. Especially I want to know if any home boys are in the hospital, as so much of my work will be in the wards. We have facilities for locating the men, and I shall be glad at any time to answer a letter for any one who wants to make inquiry about one of our boys.

Very truly yours,
ANNIE E. R. SEARING.

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

Your boy comes stumbling out of the battle-line—

He wants a place to rest, a place to get warm, a place to smoke and get a hot drink and hear somebody talk United States.

He sees a light ahead. It's a hut!

Do you think he cares whether that hut is run by the Knights of Columbus or the Y. M. C. A., Jewish Welfare Board or the Salvation Army? Not much! He knows what he wants and he knows that he'll get it—whatever uniform the folks inside happen to be wearing.

Your boy knows what real democracy means.

He's fighting to make it something bigger and better and finer than it ever was before. He's the world's greatest authority on democracy today. Take his word for it!

Keep the hut fires burning!

A hut is your fighter's home over there. It is his store, his theatre, his church, his school and his club.

It is the place where he writes your letters.

It is the place where he reads his books and magazines, where he and his friends get around a piano and sing or listen to a phonograph.

It is the place where all the movies are given, and the concerts and the minstrel shows and vaudeville. Often it is the only place within reach that is dry and light and warm and clean.

A hut may be a shed or tent or a fine old chateau or a hotel. Sometimes, at the front, it's just a battered little shack—the only building left standing in town.

On the fighting line, it's just a board laid across two boxes with a sign nailed to a tree.

The sign doesn't matter—it's what the hut gives your fighter.

Back up these seven organizations without thought of race or creed, because your boy knows that he is always welcome everywhere, and he needs them all.

The Ulster County War Chest Campaign includes Ulster County's quota for the seven organizations which at the request of President Wilson have joined in the one United War Work Campaign.

The War Chest also includes the local war welfare and social welfare agencies.

It makes unnecessary for one year any further campaigns except the American Red Cross, and membership and investment campaigns. It expresses the County "that unity of spirit as a nation that is making it possible for us to do what President Wilson refers in his letter to Mr. Fosdick."

UNDERNEATH THE CITY HALL DOME

Election Officials Seek More Pay—
A New Use for American Flag—
91 New Cases of "Flu"—What Happened in the Sixth.

The bills of the election officials who served Tuesday at the election are being filed with City Clerk Durand at the city hall. Under the law election officials are paid at the rate of $7 a day for work on registration days and $10 for election day, while the chairman of the board receives an extra $7 for his work in filling the election returns the day after election. Many of the election officials are seeking more pay and have filed bills calling for $10 a day for registration days and $15 for election day. As the pay is fixed by the city charter it is likely the common council will cut all bills filed for higher amounts than those allowed by law.

In the second district of the Sixth ward the voters marked their ballots and cast their votes Tuesday without signing their names to the signature book. This was due to the fact that the signature book was not delivered with the other election supplies. It is believed that the Whitman-Smith election is being held up to decide whether the two hundred votes in that district should be counted or cast out as unfounded.

Those visiting the city hall this morning found that a new use for the American flag had been discovered by the Kingston City Library across the street from the hall. The flag was used to cover the flower bed on the front lawn to protect the plants from frost. More than that it was thrown across the bed upside down—the distress signal—and the library is one of our most American institutions. The German flag would have been more appropriate.

During the past three days—Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday—81 new cases of influenza and pneumonia have been reported in Kingston. This indicates that the influenza epidemic is still very active.

Police circles still remain quiet and no arrests were made by the police during the night.

Our Growing Population.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lechborn of No. 53 Cedar street are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, Melvin, born at the Kingston City Hospital on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brodsky of Maple Hill are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, Edward, at the Kingston City Hospital Tuesday.

Two Ambulance Calls Thursday.

Mrs. K. Rudnitski of 21 Lafayette avenue was removed to the Kingston City Hospital Thursday afternoon. Henry Garlick was removed from his home on the Sawkill road that evening to the Kingston City Hospital.

HURLEY ROAD IS NEARLY COMPLETED

The Hurley state road is rapidly nearing completion, and weather conditions permitting, will be finished by Monday afternoon. The road bed is of concrete and is sixteen feet wide. It is being built from the Marbletown bridge to the city line. After completion it will remain closed to traffic for about ten days in order to allow the concrete to harden. The road is being built by the Falkirk Construction Company, and will make a fine highway when completed. At the present time those traveling between Kingston and Hurley have to detour.

ULSTER MEN IN CAMP

Who Have Not Mastered English Can Get Help From Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. Hostess House, Camp Gordon, Georgia.

Nov. 5, 1918.

Editor Kingston Freeman:

Dear Sir:—As soon as the quarantine in this camp was lifted, I came here to take charge of a new work in which it occurs to me your readers and my fellow townsmen may be interested. It is a work for the foreign born soldiers, and after observing the experiments tried out last summer, the government has asked the Y. W. C. A. to carry it out in the cantonments where the foreign born men are mainly grouped. This association was peculiarly equipped to carry it on as they have been doing a widespread work among foreign born women for many years past and have a very large number of interpreters in their employ.

We shall be able in this camp to speak with Italians, Poles, Russians, Rumanians, Servians and the various Slav nationalities in their native tongues. The military and the moral department have shown themselves in sympathy and have already availed themselves of what we have to offer. The problems arising among these poor fellows who have often deserted and even committed suicide through the utter discouragement in making their wants known or their difficulties understood, are of almost infinite variety. Indeed I have within my first week been sent for to interview a man whom his lieutenant thought to be an Italian, but he was a Russian Jew's wife and help her find her way to her husband, beside unnumbered interviews here in the afternoon and evenings when the house is thronged with soldiers, who are singing and gay noises are heard ready for a friendly word.

If the case is one for Red Cross Home Service, the R. C. is called up and I get an appointment with a representative at once. WHEN BLUE STARS TURN TO GOLD.

How numerous the service flags, the blue stars how resplendent. And they tug at hearts of loved ones, until all our lives, it seems, are uplifted by the boys come to manhood so transcendent. That they give to us the spirit of their visions and their dreams.

They're declaring now the glory of the fathers and the mothers. Who upon the hills and prairies in the stirring times of youth suffered, toiled, endured the dangers, lived the life of hope, that others might build upon foundations they had laid on stones of truth.

These heroes have inherited the promise of our nation. Their work in France and Flanders is fulfillment to their souls. Fighting for a master purpose, they achieve an exaltation. That can come but once to humankind as history unrolls.

So supreme the heights they're reaching that their blue stars now are changing into gold ones. . . . And we meekly kiss the red, the red, the red, the red. For their noble sacrifice, the soul's highest reaches ranging. Have glorified America and God!

GIVING THE KAISER HIS DUE

At That, Writer's Remarks Might Seem by Some to Go the Limit of Controversial Argument.

In the American Magazine Booth, Tardington admonishes us to use the Kaiser as an object lesson—as a horrible example of what not to emulate. In closing he says:

"Finally, we ought not to be uncharitable, even to the Kaiser. I believe we ought to say of him: As a Kaiser he is the climax and the centrifugal point of the most detestable ambition that the world has known; and as a man he is the most blindly false, cruel and selfish man whose traits have been shown forth by spectacular performances in history. And as a man and a Kaiser combined he is the most clamorous thing that has ever happened to the earth.

"But then, lest we be outdone in charity by the gentleman-in-the-barroom, who did not wish to seem to be merely abusive, we should add: "But outside of that, he's all right."

The Noises of New York.

The noises of New York are so lonesome, writes Josef Suez in World Outlook. They make me want to go home—back to Tunis, where it is not all machinery and I can hear the people shouting to each other and to their animals in the street. Here you can not hear the people at all. It is as if the whole city is a big machine and the people all are dumb. I find that very lonesome. When I learn a little English and go to the stores I find them very strange. They do not bargain at all. You ask a man, "How much?" He tells you and, as in Tunis, you cry out and say, "Ah, never will I pay that! It is robbery!" But what says the American storekeeper? He says, "Then you need not buy it." You must pay what he asks or not at all. I find it strange to do business that way. In Africa a merchant spends hours, sometimes, bargaining with his customers, and they come again, day after day, until they agree on a price. But here there is no time—hurry, hurry, all like machine.

Thanks for Two Cents.

"The man that keeps the news stand where I buy my papers," said Mr. Blundington, "always says 'Thank you' when I put down my two cents."

"He doesn't say this humbly, nor loudly, nor pertinently, but just simply and quietly and naturally, as if he meant it, which I have no doubt he does. He likes to have people come and trade with him and he tries to make things pleasant for them, and people like to trade with him."

"I don't doubt that he has doubled his business just by being polite to people and meaning it. Everybody likes to be treated with courtesy."

Japanese Living Abroad.

The total number of Japanese citizens living abroad was 250,773 at the end of June, 1917, according to figures issued by the Japan Gazette. This is an increase of 5,657 in the year. The United States was credited with 151,068 men and 75,772 women, the most in any country. Manchuria and Kwantung ranked next with 69,162 men and 51,764 women. Brazil had 20,750 men and 22,688 women, with 24,253 men and 24,253 women in other South American countries.

Egyptians Raise Pigeons.

Certain Egyptians carry on to a remarkable degree the business of raising pigeons. On one estate are 14 pigeon towers, each composed of about 1200 clay jars, set one upon another. Each jar forms a comfortable house for the family of pigeons occupying it.

Forenight.

"I think we had better get a job before we hurry."

"Don't be so unromantic, Percy. I won't need any new clothes for a long time."

"True, but you may want to eat almost immediately."

Absent Minded.

"I was sitting while downtown," said the absent minded man. "I was sure I went out without an umbrella."

"Don't you?"

"But here I have one."

Actions That Make Greatness.

A truly great man's actions are works of art. Nothing with him is exaggerated or exaggerated. They involve their consequences, and develop themselves along with the events that gave them birth—successes, in truth.

Modern Cruises.

Between the island of Madagascar and the coast of India there are sixteen large islands, only six hundred of which are inhabited. In most of these islands a man can live and support his family in luxury without working more than 25 days in the year, or at all, as nature provides the food, and clothes are required.

A Good Laugh.

A "good laugh" is not quite the same thing as a hearty laugh. Occasionally you may have seen young people conversed with laughter over something that meant suffering and disaster to another. Many a laugh has been raised by an unclean suggestion. But it is a "good laugh" that has no hint of impurity or unkindness.
